

Lomita Water Annexation Seen

Petitions will shortly be circulated in northern Lomita to annex that area to County Water District No. 13.

The decision to seek an election was made at a meeting of residents Tuesday under sponsorship of the Lomita Property Owners and Registered Voters Association, following complaints of poor service by the Narbonne Ranch Water companies.

If the necessary signatures are obtained, an election could be held this spring.

Contract for Carson Awarded

Extension of Carson St. between Juniper Ave. and Hawthorne Blvd. should be completed in about 60 days after contract for the work was awarded Tuesday.

Low bidder on the job was Norwalk Asphalt Concrete Construction Co., which submitted a $68,739 bid, nearly $7000 below the cost estimate.

Carson St. will be opened and widened for four traffic lanes to serve the Del Amo Shopping Center.

Bids will be received next week for the widening of Sepulveda Blvd. between Arlington Ave. and Hawthorne Blvd. to serve as another major traffic artery.

A Dramatic Advance in EYE SAFETY
for Workers
Eye damage from shattering glass is a hazard for thousands of shop workers and others who require vision correction on the job. But now a dramatic advance in eye safety has been made by the development of a crystal clear, UNBREAKABLE plastic that can be made in nearly any kind of prescription for eyeglasses, including bifocals. This remarkable new plastic is less than half as heavy as glass lenses, and it thus combines approved vision correction, safety and comfort.
WORKERS IN EYE HAZARDOUS TRADES and parents of rough and tumble youngsters should investigate the possibilities of these new plastic lenses. Not expensive; easy terms. Come in for a demonstration.

As you enter the Las Palmas theatre in Hollywood you are handed a playbill reading "The Billy Barnes Revue." At the very top of the program in fine, fine type reads . . . "Look around, choose the nearest exit to your seat as indicated by the lighted sign . . . in case of earthquake, air raid, fire . . . etc." Well, once the lights dim and this fresh, sparkling revue commences, there's no thought of leaving . . . not even for a Santa Claus Parade.

The cast consists of eight new talents . . . all of whom can sing, dance and clown in this satirical and amusing showcase. There are skits about Marilyn M., the Ivy Leaguer, the Beatnik, Tijuana, Hamlet, Las Vegas and old movies among others. The music and lyrics all by Billy Barnes are up-to-date and clever . . . and the cast uses the material to best advantage with wonderful change of pace.

In all, the Revue is show of bright fun . . . a refreshing evening of entertainment.

This past weekend, for readers in the northern part of the scene, San Francisco was the freeway turn-off taken. On Nob Hill, where the neon blinks Fack's II, the show featured singer Randy Sparks (with guitar), curvaceous Meg Myles and female impersonator T. C. Jones. The highlight of the late show Saturday night was when T.C. smoothed her red wig, snatched up a hand mike and slunk up to the ringside table where Gardena Tribune editor Tom Parks was controlling his laughter. Then in the sultriest voice heard in a long time, T. C. whispered to Tom, "Oh, pardon me dear, I thought you were that big New York producer!" Needless to say, Tom was carried off.

Other sights in S. F. included the Purple Onion (a bistro for culture lovers), New Joe's in North Beach where the pasta can't be beat, the Top of the Mark for another breath-taking view of this colorful town (and if your timing was right and your feet nimble enough, you could meet Russian diplomat Mikoyan riding the elevators here). The Buena Vista was always the last stop for Irish Coffee. For more lurid details of the San Francisco scene contact correspondent Bob Martello, your weekend host at the Vegas Club on Vermont.

Held over by popular demand is a familiar nightclub phrase. Over at Del's Camino Room on Crenshaw such an announcement had to be made, but some originality was desired. So to please everybody it was decided to state simply that the Al Apodaca Trio will continue entertaining on weekends through nobody's fault. Actually, Al has a great following and a wonderful sense of humor . . . for a musician.

NAMES IN THE NIGHT:
Sherry-Lou, the pretty brown-eyed bathing beauty at the Jump 'n Jack in Torrance, who loves to entertain nightly at the organ bar (she acts too!); the Steak Bar in Torrance, where Top Sirloins are a price and taste treat; the Hitching Post on Western, where rockin' and rollin' is the greatest with the Norman Brown group; Eddie Zero, the comic of the Roaring 20's, who is billed as the Big Nothing from Vegas; Paul Schroeder, the piano stylist at the Pall Room, who entertains regularly now at this new Gardena pub on Van Ness; Kyoto, that popular sukiyaki restaurant on Western, where the Tempura, (fried shrimp) is out of this world; Marvin Marr, the piano master of the Vegas Club in Gardena, who always brings in a collection of noise makers for his fans to join in on the rhythm-making; the Polynesian on 101, where Pepe and Joe make tropical drinks that almost take you all the way to the islands (let's get away from it all!).

City Employees Air Complaints

Filing of written complaints were ordered by the Civil Service Commission Wednesday when approximately 100 city employees appeared to protest a recent job reclassification study and changes in employment regulations pending before the City Council.

A major objection to proposed new regulations is that seasonal employees are to be rehired on the basis of their last efficiency report rather than seniority.

Further discussion between the commission and the employees union will be held.
